S2.4 Title: Sara and Mo talk about people they know.

M	Hi Sara, how are you?
S	Fine, thanks. You?
M	I'm ok. I have a class later but I have some free time now.
S	So do I. Let's get a coffee.
M	Great idea!
S	Is that your brother over there in the market?
M	Yes, that's Issam.
S	What's he like?
M	He's happy – he's always smiling. He's funny, too. He's definitely not shy!
S	Are you like him?
M	Oh, no! We have different personalities. I'm organised and serious – it's not easy working and studying at the same time.
S	Hhhmm. You're right. I don't have a job – I just study at university so I don't have that problem.
M	You're intelligent – maybe it's because you spend all your time studying in the library!
S	Haha. Well, I try my best. I like reading. I read a lot of books. You don't have much time to go to the library, do you?
M	No, I don't. When I finish class, I go straight to work.
S	Who's your manager at work?
M	Her name is Mrs George.
S	What's she like?
M	She's calm. She's not moody at all.
S	Okay, is she a good manager?
M	I like her. She's helpful to everyone.
S	She seems nice.
M	Yes, she is. She understands when I'm a bit late because when she was a student at university, she had a job too.
S	Ah, that's why she's kind to you. Maybe she thinks about her time at university and how hard it was.
M	You're right. She knows it's not easy to study and work.
	What class do you have later?
	We have a lecture this afternoon with Professor Leila Smith.
	What's the lecture on?
	I think it's Chemistry.
	And what's Professor Smith like?
	She's confident. She really understands the subject.
	I'm sure the lectures are really interesting.
	Yes, they are. I enjoy them.
	Do you have a class this afternoon?
	No, not today. I'm going to the library to study for a few hours.
	Are you going by yourself?

	Yes, sometimes I like to be alone. Maybe it sounds like I'm boring, but I can read more when there is no one around.
	I don't think you're boring!
	Well, some people think I am. I'm not sad either. I just like studying!
	You're not sad or moody – you're friendly and hardworking.
	Thanks, Mo.
	No need to thank me! See you tomorrow!
	Okay, bye!
